ORDER CONFIRMING CONTINUED VITALITY
OF MODIFICATIONS OF AUTOMATIC STAY

The United States of America, a creditor, requested an order of this Court confirming that the conversion of this proceeding from one under Chapter 11 to one under Chapter 7 did not affect the continued vitality of this Court's prior orders modifying the automatic stay. The Debtor filed a response in opposition to the motion, asserting that the Trustee required time to determine if it has a claim or interest in the distribution of funds in the Florida litigation.

This Court finds that conversion of the proceeding from Chapter 11 to Chapter 7 did not affect the prior orders modifying the automatic stay. The response in opposition filed by the Debtor is overruled. The Trustee may seek time from the Florida court to make whatever determinations are necessary.

It is therefore ordered that this Court confirms that its order of January 18, 2005, converting this proceeding from one under Chapter 11 to one under Chapter 7 did not affect or impair the continued vitality of this Court's previous orders modifying the automatic stay in this proceeding.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
